

2001-51

>>> Dorthy Langan <dlangan@geibassociates.com> 08/13/03 01:40PM >>>
YES - Michigan Supreme Court should allow prosecutors to include other acts of violence when presenting domestic violence cases.

It would have made a difference in my case, and individuals should be given this consideration when marital partners divide. Consideration for police domestic violence reports should also be included in divorce proceedings.

I'll give my vote to include prior history for domestic violence offenders.

Dorothy Langan
Shelby Twp MI